ASTRUM

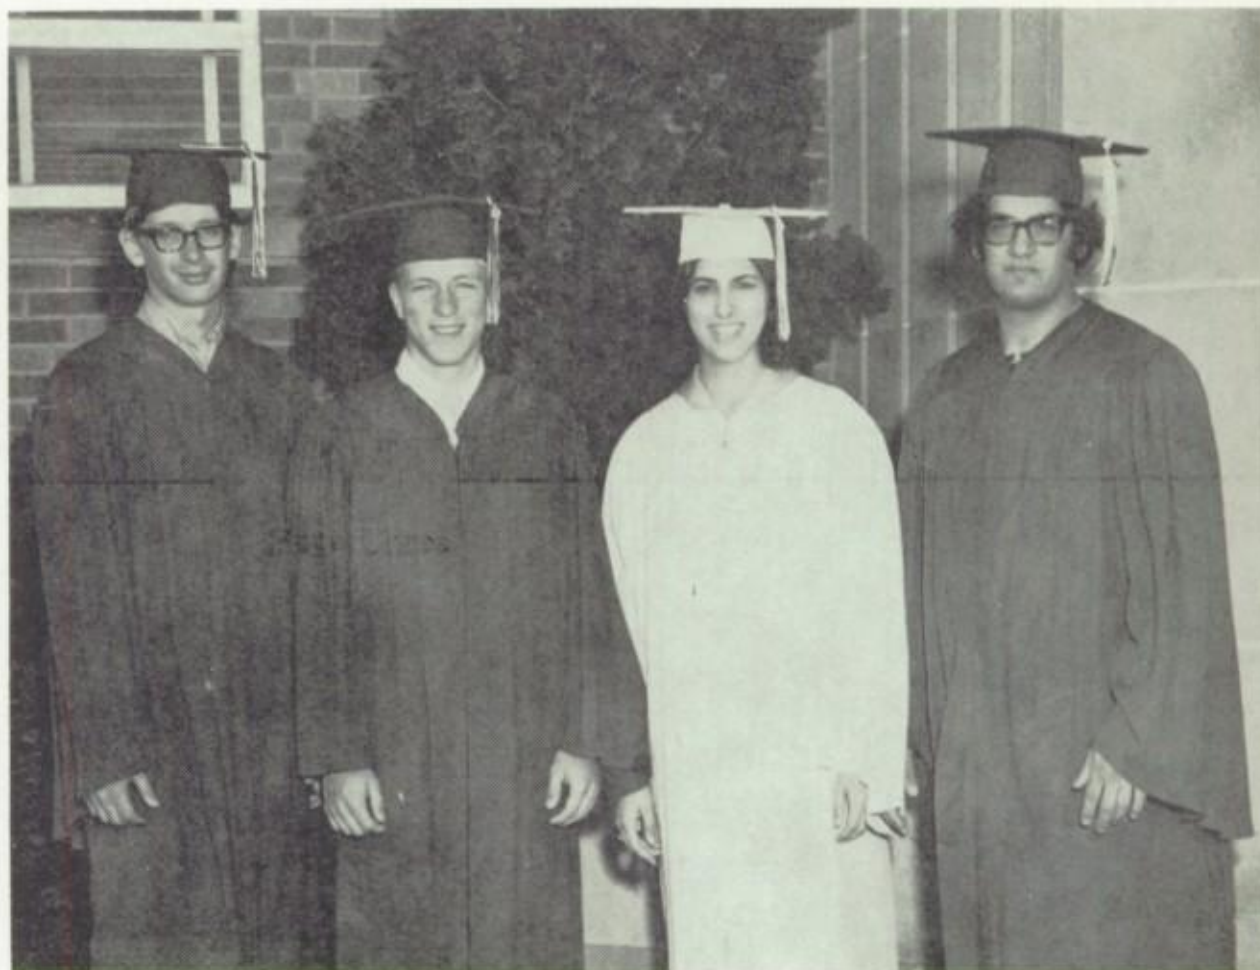

There was a road to follow, and it had no walls, no fences. The road seemed very long, and sometimes the journey was tiresome and dusty. Now the road ends in a large open place, and the journey was not quite as long. There were fields in which to stray and trees to shelter us; there were people traveling the same road to laugh with us. There were many places to wander to reach the end of the road, and some of the flowers that were picked along the way have been lost, but there is no way to go back and find them. We, the Class of 1971, are proud to see the birth of the seventies, and we will seek our future because we are "Born Free."

CLASS OF 1971 OFFICERS: Chuck Ford, President; Jeff Baldwin, Treasurer; Gayle Federman, Secretary; Mark Blythe, Vice-President.

CLASS OF '71

JODIE ANDERSON: Jod, with the yellow convertible, could always be seen "making the loop." With her great love for people, she will make a fine addition to Moline Public.

ALICE APPLETON: Being one of the prettiest girls in our class, Alice was a Homecoming Attendant her first two years at AHS. One could always count on Alice to be efficient, whether it was for Student Council or the TF.

JEFF BALDWIN: "Baldie" contributed much to AHS during his four years. He was very active in the athletic department, and he also scored several points off-the-field with Patti. During his senior year, Jeff could be found working actively for the class of "71".

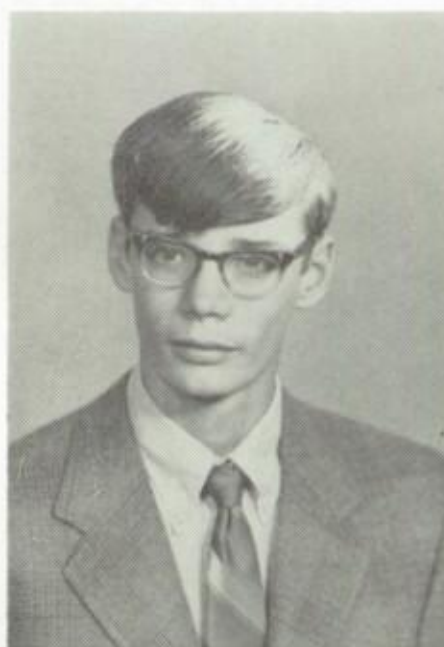

RICK BARGER: Better known as "Booger" to his friends, Rick was very much a part of AHS. As a hard working member of I. O., Rick still found time to clown around in his "big" buggy.

CHRIS BARNES: "Jose", one of the Ag Boys, could always be seen cruising with the gang. Chris always seemed to have fun wherever he was, and he always had a joke for every situation.

KARLA BARNHOUSE: Karla, with her bubbling personality, was a great asset to the band's drum section, especially when she "rang those chimes". Working on the class float, on the Astrum, and writing Navy bound letters occupied much of her time.

TOM BEDFORD: Tom, one of the I. O. boys, could be found building houses. Fun activities outside of school set him apart from the gang. Tom could usually be found riding around town in a dark green Ford.

KEN BENTLEY: "Nubber", with his great ability in book-keeping class, was always an asset to "Bookkeepers". Ken's "ambition" should lead him to success in all future ventures.

ROGER BIDDLE: "Tex" was a star in bookkeeping. He could always be seen riding the loop in his "hot" Ford. First hour P.E. wouldn't have been the same without Roger's swift actions.

JERRY BIGHAM: Being fast on the court, Jerry helped form part of the Dragon team. He was also fast when it came to passing around a quick joke. A certain Senior blonde accompanied him on most of his exploits.

CAROL BLOOMFIELD: One of the strongest girls in school, Carol will be remembered for her stunts in P.E. class, as well as her acting in "The Diary of Anne Frank". She will surely be missed next year at AHS and at the T. F.

MARK BLYTHE: Being one of the great "Seaton Gang", Mark was a real live wire. Whenever time came for a good laugh, one knew that Mark would be around. Most of this boy's time was spent hustling a certain Junior cheerleader.

MIKE BLYTHE: The more mischievous of the Blythe twins, Mike could always be seen doing something, whether working for the school or just "bombing" around. Mike's sense of humor will be remembered at AHS.

LYNN BOPP: As a member of the Green Dragon football team, Lynn always strived for victory. Many a study hall was blest with this boy's presence, and fourth hour Speech will miss his famous speeches.

MARY KAY CARLSON: Mary was a girl who had a smile for everyone. She always knew how to have fun and was frequently in the middle of it. Her personality and abilities will help her in the times ahead.

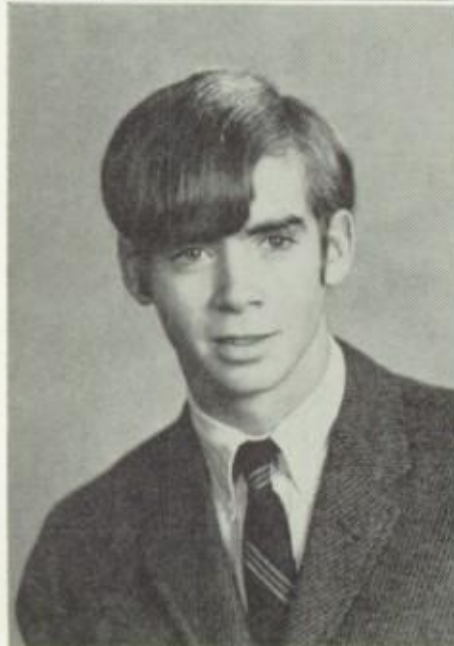

CHRIS CARROLL: Chris was an indispensable member of the Senior class. She was known for her remarks, wild laughter, and her talent in the music department. Many a weekend night was blest with this girl's parties.

TOM CHISM: "Chopper" will always be remembered for his quick wit in first hour speech. He was a hard working I. O. student and was friendly with everyone. Tom was also a member of the well known "Seaton Gang".

LYLE CLARK: Being one of the few redheads in our class, Lyle didn't let this bother him. Receiving the most valuable player award in football, "Red" was always where the "action" was.

BILL CONWAY: Bill was an all-round nice guy. Whether playing football or messing around in track, he always had a good time, especially on Prom night.

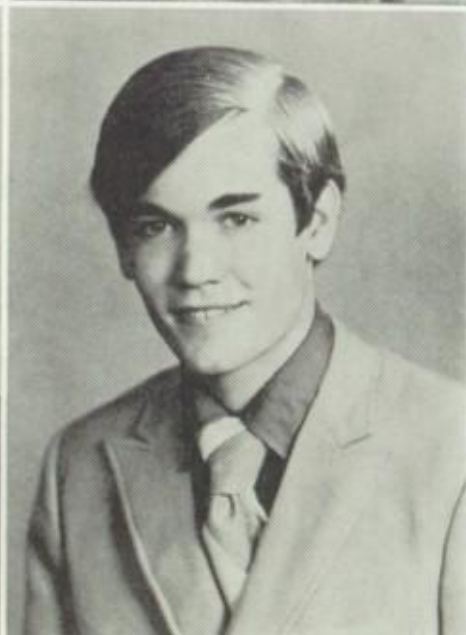

DAVE COOPER: When not with his favorite Sophomore girl, Dave was usually playing basketball or football. He was one of the best athletes of AHS, and the team would certainly have been lost without him.

MARY DARNELL: Mary was really a blast in first hour speech. She was a girl who could always be seen with a smile on her face. Always willing to help, Mary proved to be indispensable to a certain teacher.

DONNA DeCLERK: Donna's big smile and her fantastic personality were a great asset to AHS. Even though she was a good girl, she always managed to have a wild time. Whatever Donna does in the future, she will certainly succeed.

KEITH DEMING: After graduating from Ohio Grove, Keith became one of the "Ag Boys". He will always be remembered for his tall tales. Even though Keith was an Ag student, his interests seemed to lie elsewhere.

GAYLE FEDERMAN: When not working at the T. F., Gayle was usually riding around with the girls or walking her dog. As F.T.A. President, she solved many problems.

TOM FINCH: "Rocky" was one of the livelier members at A.H.S. Although he was always telling jokes, running around the town on weekends, yelling, or having a good time, "Rocky" found time for basketball, football, and track.

KEN FINLEY: As one of the main leaders of the Seaton gang, "Little Weasel" always found a party if there was one! Ken will follow closely in his brother's footsteps and will hold the family name high.

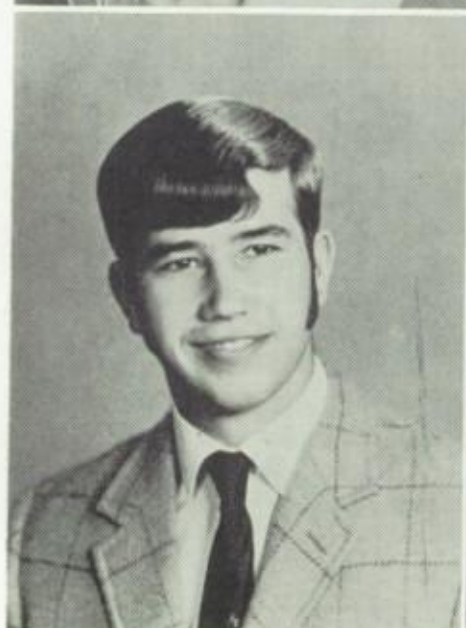

CHUCK FORD: Our senior class President worked diligently for his fellow students, and had fun most of the time. Charlie could usually be found with the rest of the boys or in his red Corvair.

PAM FOWLER: Because of her fine ability to play basketball, Pam was a great contribution to the third hour P.E. class. She could always be seen laughing or walking with a certain pair of "Legs".

DANA FRYE: Dana was great at making baskets for the Dragons and even better at making it with a cute sophomore queen candidate. Bradley University will be getting a real sportsman next year.

JAMES GILLILAND: "Gilligan", one of the famous Ag boys, could usually be found with the rest of the gang. Jim will go far in the farming profession.

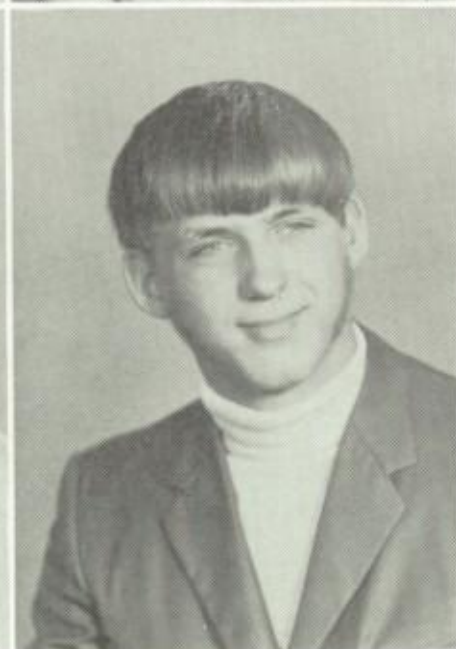

BILL GLENN: Coming to Aledo during his Junior year, Bill managed to make friends quickly. "Billy Tongue" will always be remembered for his great abilities in football.

KATHY GOODMAN: With her great personality and a quick smile, Kathy was a friend to all. This senior girl had a love for helping people and will make a fine addition to the hospital.

AVIS GULDENPFENNIG: Avis, the "Brain" of the senior class, not only scored high on grades, but in extra-curricular activities such as band and GAA. Monmouth will be Avis's gain and Aledo's loss.

DEBBIE GUTHRIE: Deb was one of the funniest girls in our class. Whether playing in the band or being in FTA, Debbie could be counted on to do her part. Western will accept her with open arms.

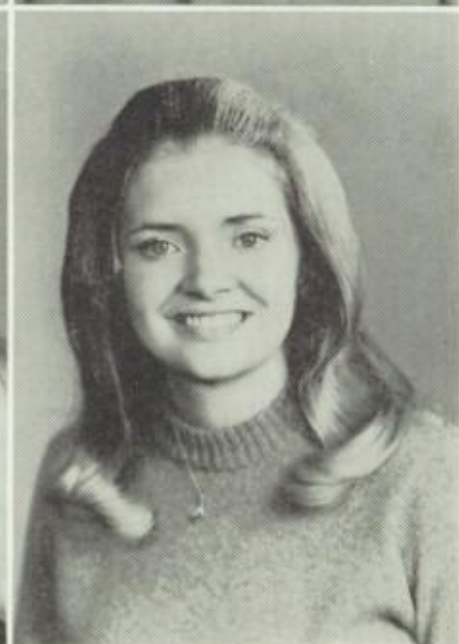

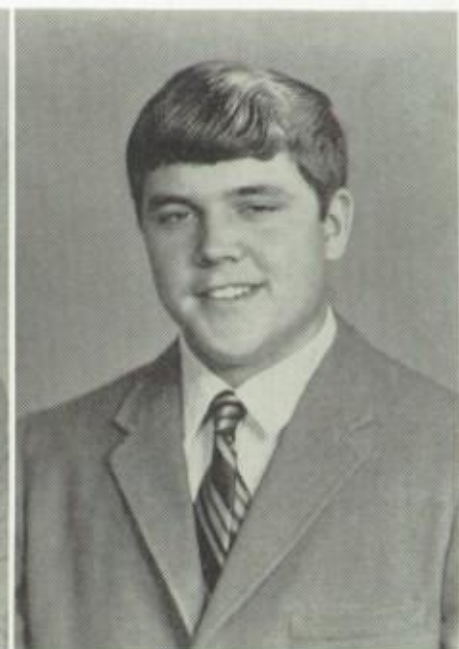

HAROLD HALL: When not working part-time at McCaw's or at school, "Weird" could usually be seen making a path to Sherrard. I. O. class wouldn't have been the same without Bud's jokes.

RANDY HARDISTY: Randy could usually be found roaming the halls or working at the Mercer County Nursing Home. His friendly smile and great personality will take him far in his career of nursing.

FRANK HARLAN: "Farmer Frank" was a true Seaton boy. Modern Problems would never have been the same without Frank's quick comments and his many arguments. It seemed as though Frank only found true love in a sophomore, cows, and a 427.

NELLIE HASTINGS: Although Nellie was busy with band, chorus, musicals, and the Mod 4, she always kept her grades number "1" in the senior class. Certainly "Mother Abbess" will "Climb Every Mountain".

BARB HEMPHILL: Barb could always be seen with a bright smile and a big hello. Whether singing in the "Bridge Between" or making the loop, Barb was always busy with some activity.

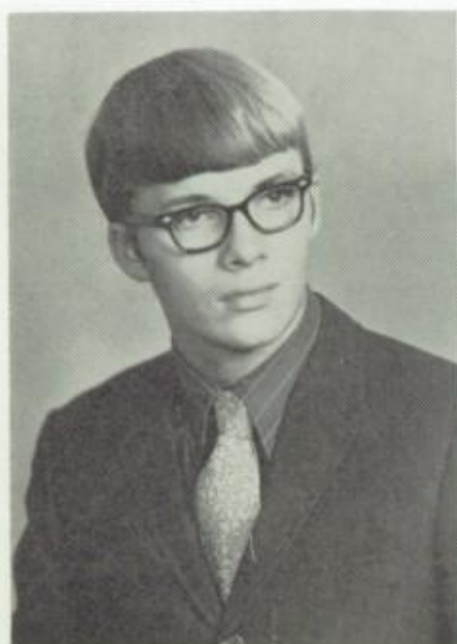

SUE HOFMANN: Although she was a member of the Senior class, Sue seemed to prefer another school. Without Sue's opinions in Modern Problems, the class would have surely failed.

BABETTE HUNTER: Being one of the "in crowd", Babette could usually be seen in the middle of the action. Although she was an active member of the class of "71", Babette's main interest was in the army.

ED JOHNSON: "Turbo", one of the Moline boys, could usually be seen with a certain sophomore girl. Whether roaming the halls at AHS or sitting by the tracks, Ed was always active.

CAROLINE JONES: Caroline, Aledo's import from England, always seemed to have a smile for everyone. The Union-Jack in the auditorium will always remind the class of "71" of their British Bird.

BERT JUHREND: To some Bert was AHS's answer to Hugh Hefner. He had many activities which included band, sports, music, and girls, not always in that order. Aledo will long remember Bert's interpretation of Captain Von Trapp.

SALLY KEATING: Charm and beauty best described Sally, as could be proven by her being Homecoming Queen candidate her junior and senior years. Sally was a great loss to Monmouth and an excellent gain to Aledo.

MELANIE KENDALL: Mel might have seemed quiet at school, but the people who knew her better knew that she lived for the week-ends. With her friendly laugh and great personality, Melanie will succeed.

DAN KISTLER: If not walking the halls looking for trouble, "Kissie" could usually be seen driving his "mean" wagon. He will well be remembered for his remarks in sixth hour speech and for the "great" bird.

ELAINE KISTLER: Elaine, being one of the Counselor's secretaries, could always be counted on to get you out of a study hall. With her great personality, Elaine will go far in life.

JAMES LANE: Jim, a veteran of another life, came to Aledo his Junior year. Just making school or the "Office" his home, Jim could always be seen having a good time. Jim's efforts in Modern Problems will long be remembered.

MICHELE TRUMAN LANGSTON: Although Mickey always had a pleasant smile and a "hi" for everyone, she will always belong to a certain guy in the Army. Her skill as a cheerleader brought many a great pep rally to the students of AHS.

ROGER LAWSON: "Deadbird", our patriotic wonder, will always be remembered as stars and stripes forever. Roger's electrical talents contributed greatly to the plays and to the Student Council.

DONALD LESLIE: "Worm", one of our Millersburg imports, was always dependable at giving a lift to whoever needed one. He was commonly seen around with a certain Sophomore girl.

KANDY LIGGETT: Kandy could always be found where the action was. When her '68 Seaton boy was home, Kandy could always be found having a good time in a blue Galaxy 500.

EUGENE LILLY: As one of the quieter members of the Senior class, Eugene was frequently seen in his dark green Ford. His long bush sideburns were a great asset to the class.

CRYSTAL LINGAFELTER: Although Cris put in her Fresh. and Soph. years at Nauvoo, she made up for lost time during last year. Cris always chose the "best" boy friends.

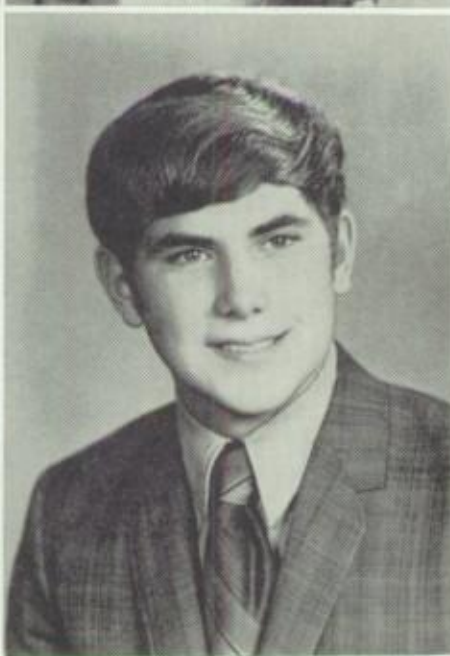

DAVID LIVINGSTON: Although quiet during school, Dave was always seen in his great Plymouth or with a certain "out of town" girl. Being shy did not hinder his personality.

SUSAN MARQUIS: Susan was the power house of the third hour P.E. class. Wherever Sue went, she could be seen having lots of fun. Next year Western will welcome this senior.

TERRY MALONE: Terry was quiet in his own sort of way. Being a friendly person, he had many friends, and after next year, Western will never be the same.

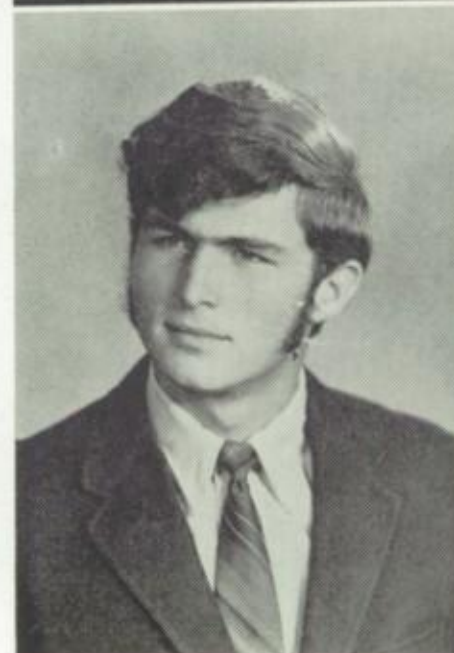

CHARLIE LOUCK: Charlie is a little on the shy side, but he could always produce a good laugh. Charlie could usually be found in the presence of a certain pint-size senior.

STEVE MAULE: "Shadow" was known mostly for his understanding mother. Steve was a real laugh in sixth hour speech. His "Personal Experiences" will long be remembered at AHS.

MARYANN MAY: The spirit of the class of "71", Maryann was an important member of the senior class. She left us after the 1st semester to become "Queen of the House", and we wish her happiness always.

RICHARD MAYNARD: Richie, being a great basketball player for four years, was an all round great guy. He also had time for a very special girl. Richie will have a promising future in insurance.

TERRY MEACHAM: Terry, the Fair Queen of "70", always had a smile for everyone. She could usually be seen riding horses or cruising around in her "66" Chevy. Aledo will never forget Terry's contributions.

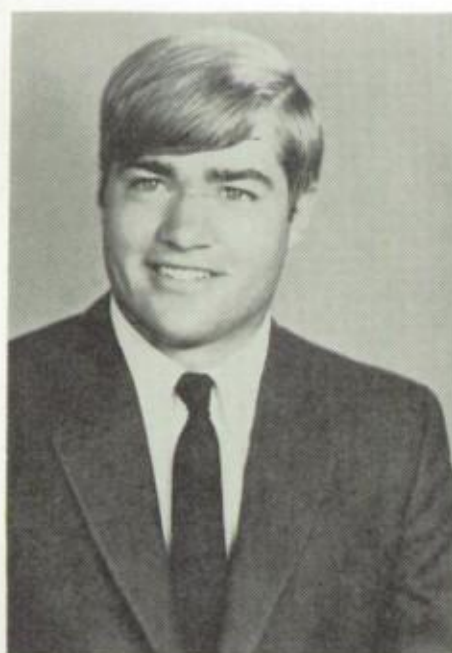

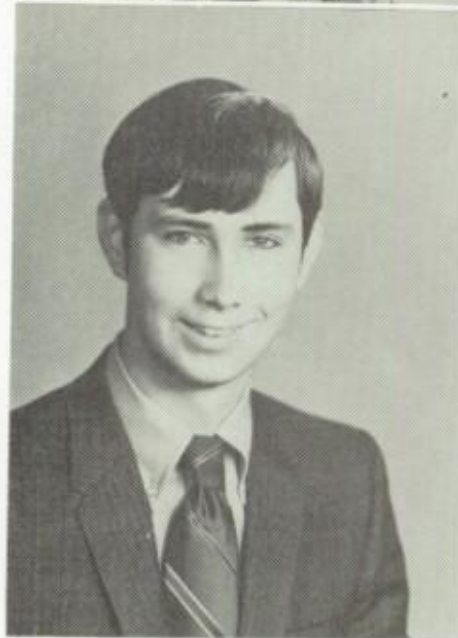

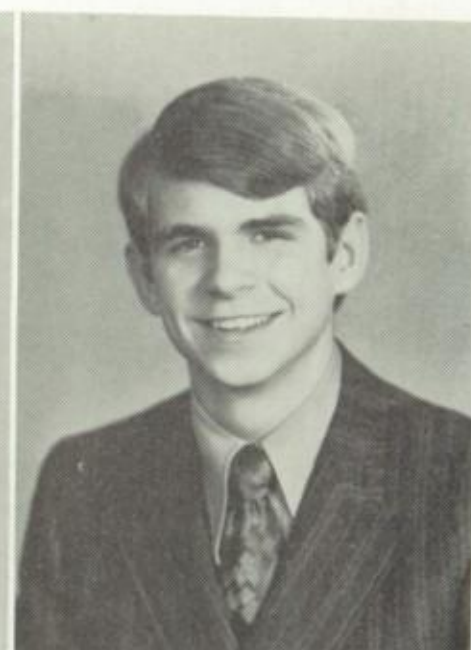

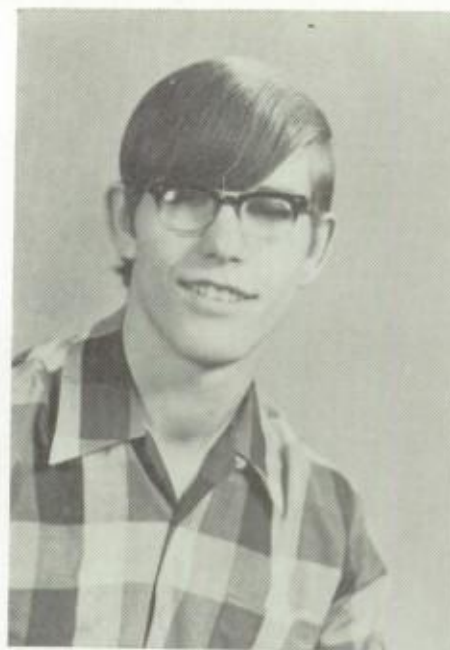

GARY MITCHELL: Being one of the Millersburg gang, Gary could be seen around the town on Friday nights along with the rest of the crowd. Although Gary loved his school life, for some reason he desired to go back to Junior High.

ROGER MURPHY: Whether "Murf" was hustling on the gridiron, or walking the halls with a certain "foreigner", Roger always had a remark for everyone. Rog will have a great future at Western.

ROBERT MacDONALD: Very active in school activities, Robert was outstanding as Peter in the "Diary of Ann Frank". Rob was one of the friendliest guys and will be remembered for his blue antique.

SANDRA McALISTER: Full of smiles and hellos for all, Sandy was a great asset to the Home Ec. Department. She found happiness at school and could frequently be seen leaving in a green Charger.

CHUCK McCaw: This "Heart-throb" will long be remembered at A.H.S. Chuck starred on the football field and in the hall, and he had a flashing smile plus a friendly hello for all.

DOUG McWHORTER: Happy and carefree, Doug kept busy by working at a certain drug store or by riding around town in his fast Dunebuggy. He will long be remembered for his "heated discussions" with a certain teacher.

BETH NESTRICK: Beth, one of our petite beauties, could well be voted "the best dressed". Although the dime store and a certain "Senior citizen" occupied most of this girl's time, F.H.A. will long remember Beth's contributions.

SYLVIA NESBITT: Sylvia could always be found at the T. F. or busy at certain activities. She was an all round neat girl, and she usually found the action.

JOANN PARKINSON: As Homecoming Queen of AHS, "Jo" really filled her title. Having a smile for everyone, she was a real queen to a certain AHS Alumni.

GARY PRICE: "Mouse" could always be seen giving the girls a ride in his famous Road Runner. His lovable personality and wit will long be remembered.

TOM RANDOLPH: Tom, a member of the Marston gang, could always be seen driving to and from Aledo. Tom with his sense of humor was an asset in first hour speech.

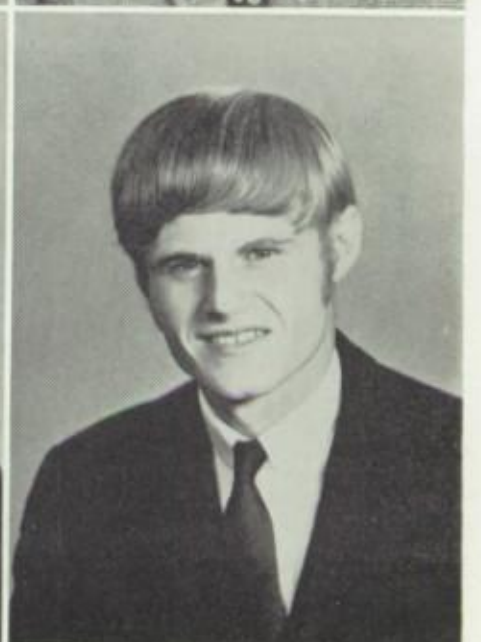

GARY SCHROCK: Gary will long be remembered for his long hours at AHS. Whether walking the halls with a certain Junior girl or working on his car, Gary's activities will never be forgotten.

BARB SEATON: "Sponge", an original Seatonite, is definitely the class fun-maker. Barb always knew where the action was, especially in English IV. Don't squeeze tooth paste in the middle when Barb is around!

BOB SMITH: As one of the members of the famed Seaton gang, Bob could always be seen riding around in the so called "hot Pontiac." Bob was also an important member of the Green Dragon football team.

JEFF SPEER: "Gale" was a football fan of his idol Gale Sayers, and he had his "bell rung" several times. Baseball and chores took up most of his time, and Jeff went by the motto, "I'm proud to be a farmer".

RICK SPENCE: Rick, one of our more exciting I. O. boys, could usually be seen cutting meat at Quinn's or riding around with a certain 1970 alumni. AHS will long remember Rick's efforts in first hour P.E.

MIKE SPONSLER: Whenever you heard a joke being told, you could always guess Mike was in the middle of it. Mike not only found time for being president of FFA, but also for a certain junior girl.

BOB STALLINGS: Bob was one of the shy members of our class, but he proved to be a lot of fun when you got to know him. Since he was in the A.V.S. program, he wasn't around very often.

BARB STANLEY: One of the liveliest girls in our class, Barb always seemed to keep things alive. She really showed this in 5th hour P.E. Barb was well known for keeping a certain teacher hopping.

JIM STENFELDT: Although Jake seemed quiet, 1st hour Speech wouldn't have been the same without him. He was known for his work in V.I.C.A. and for the jobs he did on cars.

NANCY STROUD: Nancy, half of the look-alike set, always had a smile for everyone. Whether working on the Astrum or I. O., she could be depended upon to do any job. On week-ends, one could always find Nancy with a certain Alexis alumni.

NORMA STROUD: Being one of the T. F. girls, Norma was always seen but never heard. Whether playing in the band or working on school projects, she was dependable. Norma could often be seen in a red SS making the loop.

BOB SUTHERLAND: Working on the I. O. program brought Bob to school only in the mornings. Whether helping the underclassmen or roaming the halls, one could count on Bob for a good time. First hour speech will never forget Bob's new and different ideas.

BARB STUTSMAN: Being president of the Student Council, Barb was very busy her last year at AHS. She always had time to say hello to everyone, especially to a certain "69" graduate.

LEE SWANSON: "Swana" was the master of quick exits. Whenever there was mischief, Lee was sure to be around, whether going to the Roxy or elsewhere.

PAM SWEARINGEN: Pam, one of the quieter girls of our class, could usually be seen riding around in her blue Ford. Although Pam's ideas drifted around school, her thoughts somehow wandered.

KATHY TALKIN: Kathy could often be seen riding in her Maverick. Having a great sense of humor, she could always bring a good laugh to every situation.

SAM TAYLOR: Sam's abilities in the Ag department will be a great benefit to him. Being well liked by his classmates, Sam was always having fun.

CECIL THORNDIKE: "Cec", coming to us his junior year from Davenport Central, will always be remembered for his different laugh. You could always see Cecil riding around in his red VW or working at the T. R.

KERMIT VANROEKEL: Kermit's unusual comments added very little to the Solid class, but his electrical talents will be remembered by the music and drama departments. Whenever a helping hand was needed, Kermit would always be around.

LIBBY VIPOND: Being one of senior cheerleaders, Libby always had a yell. She could always be depended on to have a hearty laugh, and she knew where the action was. Lib could usually be found cruising around the town in a yellow convertible.

MARJIE DUNCAN WEBER: Being a kind and considerate girl, Marjie would always help when she was needed. Her skill in typing will prove to be an asset. Marjie could usually be seen driving a yellow Chevy.

CURTIS WEEKS: "Frappier", one of the famous Ag boys, could usually be seen having fun. Whether bumming around or making the loop, one couldn't forget Curtis's wild times. Although he liked the life of Aledo, he could usually be seen leaving the town on weekends.

DAVE WHEELER: During school "Doc" made himself famous in Speech. His after-school activities included "social work" with the Seaton gang. He could be found "frapping" around in his fast VW.

DIANE WILLIAMS: "Di" could always be seen riding around with a certain Senior boy. Whenever someone needed a helping hand, Diane was always near. She was a sharp looking girl as proved her Junior and Senior year when she was a Queen candidate.

THE BRIDGE BETWEEN

WOC Talent Showcase April 18, 1971

In the Eyes of Youth

"The Bridge Between", formed in summer of 1970 to promote public relations between the school system and surrounding communities, has had a successful year with numerous appearances including television. From two hours of rehearsal each week, a repertoire of contemporary, religious, and folk music has evolved, enabling the group to provide music for churches and meetings of various clubs. With Mr. Stephens at the piano, the singers are accompanied by Diana Gray on string bass and Nellie Hastings on guitar. Singers are Nancy Mitchell, Cindy Parkinson, Barb Hemphill, Krista Davis, Molly Colvin, Cindy Dunn, Barb Stutsman, Vivian Van Roekel, Kim Tracy, Bill Stroud, Rick Dale, John McClellan, Mike Morgan, Bill Joseph, Jim Downey, and Bert Juhrend.

Stereo Student Council

The twenty-one member student council bought a $450 stereo system for the cafeteria and gymnasium. Students and faculty enjoyed the many Student Council activities such as the outside football pep rally, the annual Christmas assembly, slave day, and the Student Council vs. the faculty volleyball game. By selling fire extinguishers, suckers, and tickets to the Hypnotist assembly and by participating in many activities, the 1970-71 Student Council had a very successful year.

This collage of 20 black and white photographs captures a variety of school activities from 1966. The images are arranged in a grid-like fashion, showcasing students in formal attire, religious figures like nuns, athletes in action, and groups participating in stage performances or gymnasium events. The photos provide a glimpse into the daily life and special occasions of the school community during that year.
